Pop & Frye takes a look at new technologies: Friend or foe?

Date : Tuesday March 9th, 7 pm

Location : Navigator's pub, Moncton (191 Robinson Court)

The Frye Festival invites the public to a casual discussion on the book and new technologies: friend or foe? The event will take place at 7 pm on Tuesday, March 9th in the relaxed atmosphere of Navigator's Pub (191 Robinson Court, Moncton). Admission is free and all are welcome! The discussion will be in French.

A diverse panel of local experts will help us better understand this new component of our daily lives. Following a brief presentation on the history of the eBook, the discussion will be led by David Lonergan, professor and literary critic. Accompanying him will be: Serge Patrice Thibodeau, Executive Director and Literary Director for les Éditions Perce-Neige and Samuel LeBlanc, philosophy, economy, and political science lecturer as well as new technologies columnist with Radio-Canada and avid reader.
