

Frye Festival at a Glance

Canada's only bilingual international literary festival and Atlantic Canada's largest literary festival invites you to feed your imagination at more than 50 different events! There is definitely something for everyone, from 2 to 102. Meet your favourite writers and discover new ones...here is an overview of what you can expect at the Frye Festival:

Evening Extravaganzas

A unique mix of words and music, these evenings are the highlights of the Festival for many fans.

Soirée Frye

Get a taste of the Festival! Great literature, music, awards and of course, a chance to meet all the authors at the reception.

Book Clubs

Get up close and personal with your favourite author!

Frye Jam
Musical hosts, Les Paiens present great writers accompanied by great music.

April 25 to May 1, 2011

www.frye.ca

Frye Festival at a Glance

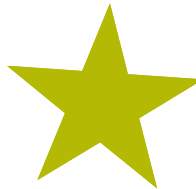

Dialogues

A relaxed and intimate opportunity to get to know the person behind the book! These one-on-one conversations are lively exchanges about writing experiences and literary adventures of all sorts.

Antonine Maillet-Northrop Frye Lecture

Discover what Margaret Atwood, Canada's most successful writer and a former student of Northrop Frye's, has to say about Frye's ideas and literature in general at the 2011 Antonine Maillet – Northrop Frye Lecture.

Readings

Sit comfortably and embark on a wonderful journey as authors read excerpts from their works. Francophone and Anglophone authors take turns reading in the language in which they write.

Margaret Atwood will sign books at a reception after her talk, too!

April 25 to May 1, 2011

www.frye.ca

Frye Festival at a Glance

Literary Lounge

Drop by the Festival's bookshop on Saturday afternoon and meet authors, mingle with fellow booklovers, and get your books signed.

Roundtables

Each author reflects on the subject of the roundtable, and then the discussion begins! These events are led by experienced moderators able to ask the right questions, allowing for an engaging debate, sure to feed your imagination! After the roundtable, the floor is open for your questions and opinions.

Frye Symposium

Time to exercise your brain! Frye experts explore and debate some of Northrop Frye's ideas. Learn a bit more about Moncton's most famous son!

Writing Workshops

Hone your craft or learn something completely new. Experienced professionals share their knowledge and insight.

April 25 to May 1, 2011

www.frye.ca

Frye Festival at a Glance

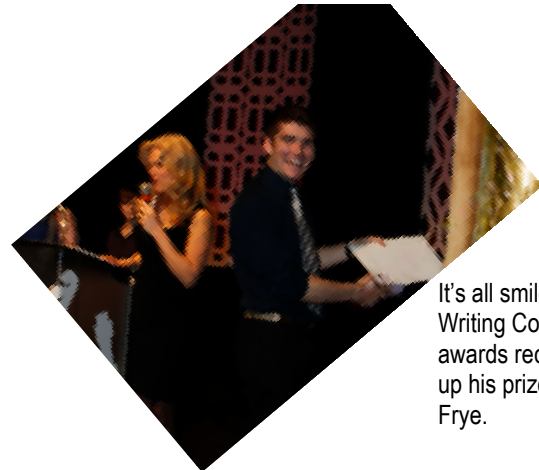

A class of young students attentively listen to children's author Nancy Wilcox Richards.

Our Budding Writers pose nervously before presenting their work to the public.

School-Youth Program

More than 10,000 students from Kindergarten to Grade 12 participate every year in the Festival. Within this major program we offer youth performance events (Café Underground and Budding Writers), a writing display (Imagination at Work) and creation opportunities (Writing Contest). Festival authors meet students in schools all over New Brunswick inspiring them to see the power and fun of words – all at absolutely no cost to schools.

It's all smiles as this Writing Contest awards recipient picks up his prize at Soirée Frye.

High school students share their literary and musical talents at Café Underground.

The School-Youth Program encourages children to discover the fun of reading ... and to share it publicly!

April 25 to May 1, 2011

www.frye.ca